

The page is framed by decorative watercolor illustrations of winter flora. In the top left, a large red poinsettia flower is surrounded by green holly leaves and pine needles. The top right features pine branches with clusters of red berries. The right side is adorned with a vertical arrangement of green leaves and red berries. The bottom left shows more pine needles and red berries, while the bottom right has a cluster of red berries and pine branches. Small gold starburst ornaments are scattered throughout the white background.
